

BOOK ACTIVITIES

FOR CHILDREN BORN IN 2015

- » Read the title on the cover of the book and point to each word.
- » Read the book to your baby and point to pictures in the story.

BEFORE READING ASK

- What do you see on the cover?
- How many rabbits are on the cover?
- What do you think the story is going to be about?

DURING READING ASK

- Where do the rabbits live?
- Where do you live?
- What did the mother rabbit tell the children rabbits not to do?

AFTER READING ASK

- How did you like the story ?
- Where did Mother Rabbit tell them not to go?
- Who disobeyed Mother Rabbit?

LET'S TALK ABOUT FEELINGS

Materials Needed:
Markers, Poster
Words and/or pictures
from the story
Emotion Stickers

Use emotion stickers to identify the feeling(s) on the poster.

Identify the Feelings

After the story is finished, talk about the many feelings that Mother Rabbit may have been juggling throughout the story.

On a separate poster list specific actions or phrases from the story and have the child identify what feeling Mother Rabbit and the baby rabbits may have had during that time.

Feelings About: The Father's accident in Mr. McGregor's garden.
The Rabbits playing in Mr. McGregor's garden.

LET'S CRAFT TOGETHER

Vegetable Garden

Materials Needed:
Empty Egg Carton
Vegetable Seed
Water
Garden Soil

Instructions:
Fill each egg carton with garden soil. Place a vegetable seed in the soil. Pour in the water. Place near a window for natural light.

LET'S MAKE IT TOGETHER

Materials Needed:

Sliced Apple
Strawberries
Sliced Halves Bananas
Carrots
Blue Berries

Rabbit Snack
Assist child with placing the banana halves above the sliced apple, blue berries on the apple for eyes, strawberry for the nose and the carrots for the whiskers.

